REPORTS

Highway Superintendent, Ryan Bose reports that they have been busy plowing and sanding. He reported that they had an issue with a sand truck with a spring and Prestige picked up the truck, but the truck was back in an hour. Ryan noted that the 2020 RAM 5500 4-door is back from Robert Green's where they installed a new transmission. Ryan reported that they have had issues with the dirt roads with mud and ruts and filled them with #3 stones from Callanan and then they will be raking the dirt roads to smooth them out. Ryan reports that he has received quotes for the 2024 Pickup. The Town Board discussed the quotes which were all on state bid.

On a motion by Councilman Hubert, seconded by Councilwoman Rasmussen to approve the proposal for a new Dodge 2500 Regular Cab in the amount of $59,158.44. Motion Passed – 4 Ayes.

Councilman Hubert thanked the Highway Superintendent for all their work on the dirt roads.

Code Enforcement Officer, Kris Scullion reports that they have finished the clean up of the house in Callicoon Center and we have received the bill from Delta Engineering and the company has sent us all the closing documents. He will work on the Re-Levy figures together and added that there was one extra day charge for the air monitor. Kris noted that he posted another house on the corner in Callicoon Center, but the homeowner came in and got the permit to fix the porch and repair the windows. He mentioned that the barn on Hemmer Road is being addressed. Kris ended with he will be attending the annual Code Enforcement Training March 23, 2025 – March 27, 2025.
